

Crossing Point Signs

- A sign has been put up on Grassy corner in the last couple of years which may have confused some coxes into thinking that this was the crossover point.

Grassy Corner Sign

- Placed on Grassy Corner and visible in both directions (2 signs)
- Refers to which side of the river boats should be on at this moment
- Does NOT indicate a crossover point

Ditton Corner Crossover

- One sign in each direction.
- Located just upstream of “the Plough” pub.
- Indicates where the changeover should happen.

Gut Crossover

- Heading downstream:
 - One sign, mounted on blue post
- Heading upstream:
 - Two signs, one on blue post, another on tree
- Indicates where crossover should happen

Questions?

- If you're unsure how to tackle the crossovers, have a look at the slidepack "Crossovers on the Cam"
