Aims

- Too many novice Cambridge coxes rely solely on a literal interpretation of the rules at the expense of common sense.
- Using both my experience as a cox, and my experience of receiving world-class cox coaching (Martin Haycock, Blue 1992-1993, CUBC Coxing Coach 2009), I intend to give novice coxes a sympathetic insight into coxing on the Cam that will develop this common sense alongside an awareness of the rules.
- For those that wish to develop their coxing further I intend to continue to organise events that draw on external expertise.
- Using my personal knowledge I also intend to organise events that prepare Cambridge coxes for the Tideway Head Races, should there be demand.
